Student Achievement

The Urban Planning Student Association (UPSA) won the 2020 Outstanding Planning Student Organization Award, American Planning Association.

100% of Professional Internship students in 2023 received a work quality rating of either “outstanding” or “exceeds expectations” by their on-the-job internship supervisors (n=5). Following are all of the comments written by internship supervisors on the quality measure (names replaced with ‘they’):

- The quality of work produced by them exceeds expectations for a person new to the industry. They produce easily-understood reports and written communications, and are able to professionally interact with customers in multiple languages (English and Spanish).
- They have been responsive and diligent in finding and conducting project work independently, solving problems, and seeking help when necessary.
- Achieved beyond my expectations. They quickly grasped the City's ordinances and applied them correctly.

89% of American Planning Association Texas Chapter members reported active or somewhat active student involvement in the chapter, out of those who reported knowledge on the topic in the chapter’s January 2024 survey (n=44).
